

Adjectives Compare Your Weeks

Market Leader Pre-Intermediate New Edition Unit 5

Compare your weeks and find out who had one which is described by some of the adjectives below. Choose any adjective, decide who it refers to by describing your week and asking questions, then move on to another one.

more routine/ the most routine shorter/ the shortest longer/ the longest cheaper/ the cheapest quieter/ the quietest more expensive/ the most expensive more romantic/ the most romantic more interesting/ the most interesting more exciting/ the most exciting more varied/ the most varied more unusual/ the most unusual stranger/ the strangest more boring/ the most boring more dangerous/ the most dangerous busier/ the busiest better/ the best worse/ the worst spent further away from home/ the furthest away from home more tiring/ the most tiring more stressful/ the most stressful more relaxing/ the most relaxing more productive/ the most productive healthier/ the healthiest

Discuss the last two adjectives as a class.

How important is health to productivity?

How could companies and educational institutions help improve the health of their employees?

Listen to the suggestions in tapescript 5.4 and compare them to your own

Do the tasks on page 57