

National theme parties Will for offers game

One person in the group should say which kind of party they are planning with "I'm going to have a _____ ian/ an/ ish/... party. Can anybody lend me a hand?"

The other people should take turns offering to help them. Politely accept good ideas and politely refuse bad ideas (e.g. ones not connected to the theme of the party). Only ideas which are accepted get a point.
